PREFACE.

THIS the third edition of the Baluchistan Code brings the laws in force in that province down to the end of 1913. It has been prepared on the same lines as Part I of the previous edition. The Rules and orders published under Acts of the Governor-General in Council and under Regulations made under the Government of India Act, 1870 (33 Vict., c. 3), which were contained in Part B of the Appendix to Part I of the 2nd edition, are omitted in the present edition as they are about to be published separately. Part II of the 2nd edition which was a reproduction of the portion of the "British Enactments in force in Native States" dealing with the laws in force in the Baluchistan Agency Territories has also been omitted as unnecessary, a new edition of that publication having lately been issued.

Whenever the ¹[Local Government], upon due investigation, shall be satisfied that the emigrants from Arakan, or emigrants from any other State who may have sought an asylum in the British territories, or the descendants of any of the said emigrants, shall have abused the protection afforded to them by attempts to excite disturbances in the State from which they or their ancestors may have emigrated, it shall be competent to the ¹[Local Government] to order the removal of those persons to such other part or parts of the country as may be judged most convenient for their future residence.

In like manner it shall be competent to the ¹[Local Government] to order such removal, whenever it ²may have grounds to be satisfied that the residence of any body of aliens, or their descendants, in the vicinity of the frontier of the country from which they or their ancestors may have emigrated, is likely to cause any serious misunderstanding between that State and the British Government.

3. Whenever any body of emigrants, or any individuals belonging to such body, shall be ordered to be removed from the part of the country in which they have been established, they shall be allowed to dispose of any property which they may have acquired in such manner as they may judge proper :

Provided, however, that, if they shall nevertheless retain the right to any real property at the period of their actual removal, it shall be competent to the ¹[Local Government] to order such property to be sold by public auction under the superintendence of the Collector of the district.

In that case the nett proceeds of the sale shall be duly paid to the person or persons to whom the said property belonged.

4. In cases in which the ¹[Local Government] may, on due inquiry and mature deliberation, be satisfied that either the preservation of the tranquillity of the British territories, or of the dominions of the allies of the British Government, or the maintenance of the relations of amity subsisting between the British Government and other States, requires that any of the leaders or other persons of the above description, who may have committed the offences mentioned in section 2 of this Regulation, should be placed and detained under restraint, it shall be competent to the ¹[Local Government] to order any such persons having committed any of the said offences, but not otherwise, to be apprehended and committed to confinement at such place, and under the custody of such public officer, and detained in confinement for such time as may be deemed by the ¹[Local Government] necessary for the public good.

5. First.—Any persons of the above description, or their descendants, who while living under the protection of the British Government, shall enter the country from which they or their ancestors may have emigrated, or any other foreign country, and shall excite, or attempt to excite, disturbances in the said countries, shall be liable to be brought to trial for that offence * * * and, if convicted, shall be sentenced to suffer imprisonment for the period of seven years.

BENGAL REGULATION III of 1818.³

[7th April, 1818.]

A Regulation for the confinement of State Prisoners.

Preamble.

1. WHEREAS reasons of State, embracing the due maintenance of the alliances formed by the British Government with Foreign Powers, the preservation of tranquillity in the territories of Native Princes entitled to its protection, and the security of the British dominions from foreign hostility and from internal commotion, occasionally render it necessary to place under personal restraint individuals against whom there may not be sufficient ground to institute any judicial proceeding, or when such proceeding may not be adapted to the nature of the case, or may for other reasons be inadvisable or improper ;

and whereas it is fit that, in every case of the nature herein referred to, the determination to be taken should proceed immediately from the authority of the Governor General in Council ;

and whereas the ends of justice require that, when it may be determined that any person shall be placed under personal restraint, otherwise than in pursuance of some judicial proceeding, the grounds of such determination should from time to time come under revision, and the person affected thereby should at all times be allowed freely to bring to the notice of the Governor General in Council all circumstances relating either to the supposed grounds of such determination, or to the manner in which it may be executed ;

and whereas the ends of justice also require that due attention be paid to the health of every State prisoner confined under this Regulation, and that suitable provision be made for his support according to his rank in life, and to his own wants and those of his family;

and whereas the reasons above declared sometimes render it necessary that the estates and lands of zamindars, taluqdars and others situated within the territories dependent on the Presidency of Fort William, should be attached and placed under the temporary management of the Revenue-authorities without having recourse to any judicial proceeding;

and whereas it is desirable to make such legal provisions as may secure from injury the just rights and interests of individuals whose estates may be so attached under the direct authority of Government;

the Vice-President in Council has enacted the following rules, which are to take effect throughout the Provinces immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort William, from the date on which they may be promulgated.

2. First.—When the reasons stated in the preamble of this Regulation may seem to the Governor General in Council to require that an individual should be placed under personal restraint, without any immediate view to ulterior proceedings of a judicial nature, a warrant of commitment under the authority of the Governor General in Council, and under the hand of the Chief Secretary, or of one of the Secretaries to Government, shall be issued to the officer in whose custody such person is to be placed.

PARTITION.

110. (1) A partition of land, either under this Chapter or otherwise, shall not, without the express consent of the Financial Commissioner, affect the joint liability of the land or of the landowners thereof for the revenue payable in respect of the land, or operate to create a new estate, and if any conditions are attached to that consent, those conditions shall be binding on the parties to the partition.

Effect of partitions of estates and tenancies on joint liability for revenue and rent.

(2) A partition of a tenancy shall not, without the express consent of the landlord, affect the joint liability of the co-sharers therein for the payment of the rent thereof.

(3) the fact that a partition on the application of a joint owner of land would render necessary the severance into two or more parts of the land comprised in the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy may, unless the tenant assents to the severance, be a sufficient reason for the disallowance of the partition in so far as it would affect that tenancy; and

(4) the fact that the landlord objects to the partition of a tenancy may be sufficient reason for the absolute disallowance of the partition thereof.

Notice of application for partition.

113. The Revenue-officer, on receiving the application under section 111, shall, if it is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, fix a day for the hearing thereof, and—

Absolute disallowance of partition.

115. After examining such of the co-sharers and other persons as may be present on that day, the Revenue-officer may, if he is of opinion that there is good and sufficient cause why partition should be absolutely disallowed, refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

116. If the Revenue-officer does not refuse the application under the last Procedure forgoing section, he shall ascertain the questions, if any, in dispute between any of the persons interested, distinguishing between—
 (a) questions as to title in the property of which partition is sought; and

(a) If the question is one over which a Revenue Court has jurisdiction, the Revenue-officer shall proceed as a Revenue Court under the provisions of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.¹

(b) If the question is one over which a Civil Court has jurisdiction, the procedure of the Revenue-officer shall be that applicable to the trial of an original suit by a Civil Court, and he shall record a judgment and decree containing the particulars required by the Code of Civil Procedure² to be specified therein.

(c) An appeal shall lie from the decree of the Revenue-officer under clause (b) as though that decree were a decree of a District Judge in an original suit.

(d) Upon such an appeal being made, the [Court of the Judicial Commissioner] may issue an injunction to the Revenue-officer requiring him to stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal.

120. (1) The amount of revenue to be paid in respect of each of the holdings into which land has been divided on a partition, and the amount of rent to be paid in respect of each of the portions into which a tenancy has been so divided, shall be determined by the Revenue-officer making the partition.

(2) The determination of the Revenue-officer as to the revenue to be paid in respect of each holding shall, where the estate in which the holding is situate is subject to a fixed assessment, be deemed to be an order under section 56, sub-section (1).
